DEVELOPMENT BILL WHILE CAPTORS SLEEP

Torn by Cactus and Barbed Wire, Tortured by Insects and Forced to Swim.

MEXICO CITY, June 29 .- A. Bruce Bielaski, the American who was kidnapped Saturday by Mexican bandits and held for ransom, has escaped and reached this city without the paymen of a single peso to his captors.

His adventure in stealing away from his sleeping guards who though him safely confined in a mountain all the details are brought out.

Scantily clad in shirt and overalls hatless and with his feet bare, suffer ing keenly from hunger and from the his way to freedom and found temporary refuge in a Mexican home at Tetecals, a mountain village a few

The arrest of Monte de Oca, who invited the Bielaski party to visit the caves of Morelos, has been ordered. pending an investigation of his con duct at the time of the kidnapping. He is said to have been instrumenta in delaying the pursuit.

MORE AMERICANS REPORTED SEIZED IN ANOTHER RAID

WASHINGTON, June 29 .- Consul-Shaw, telegraphing yesterday from Tampico, said the rebel leader Goro zave and his men left the Aguada camp of the Cortez Oil Company at 10 o'clock Monday morning. This was twenty-four hours before the time limit set by Gorosave for payment o the ransom demanded had expired and the message did not say whether payment had been made.

The Consul reported further tha Gorozave had threatened on leaving the American camp to come back and selze the property of La Corona which is among the Dutch Shell Ot interests, and also property of the Mexican Gulf Oil Company in the vicinity. The rebel leader said be would demand payment of ransom on miles through mountains into town these properties by July 2. Consul Shaw also reported tha
